The Gender Balance

Number of people the World Food Programme assisted in 2014

Gender Balance

- 15.8 million Women
- 13.2 million Men
- 25.7 million Girls
- 25.3 million Boys

School feeding

- 1.8 million Girls
- 1.7 million Boys
- 8.4 million Girls
- 8.6 million Boys

Nutrition

- 1.8 million Girls
- 1.7 million Boys
- 1.5 million Girls
- 1.5 million Boys

Refugees receiving WFP assistance

- 3.4 million Women
- 3.3 million Men

Recipients of Cash and Vouchers

- 4.5 million Women
- 4.4 million Men

Internally displaced people receiving WFP assistance

- 7.7 million Women
- 7.1 million Men

3 million pregnant women and breastfeeding mothers received food to boost their nutrition

Tried part in programmes to prevent malnutrition

WFP believes girls and boys, women and men need equal access to food and other resources to end hunger in our lifetimes

Visit wfp.org